We all feel the same
All pleasure and nothing to gain
I've known you from the start
I've grown used to your wooden heart
Now you know my name
You search your empty brain in vain
If you don't change your ways,
You'll end up here with neon rays
Without you they'll never know
Without you my life won't grow
Without you they'll never show
Without you the night won't go
Without you I'm left alone
Without you I'm on my own
Without you I lay here in pain
Without you I've gone insane
Now you must decide
What good's a lie when you've nothing to hide?
Remarks, they'll never show
They're dumb like you, they never will know
It's time we said goodbye

Bury your head and silence your cry

I've known the feel of pain:

Join our world and play our game

Without you they'll never know

Without you my life won't grow

Without you they'll never show

Without you the night won't go

Without you I'm left alone

Without you I'm on my own

Without you my life's a waste

Just for you I left my place

Without you I'm left alone

Without you I'm on my own

Without you I lay here in pain

Without you I've gone insane

(Whatever you may think of me,

Don't ever take my dignity

Whatever you may do to me,

Don't crucify my dignity
