Touched By The Hand Of God

I was standing by the ocean when I saw your face

I couldn't look at you

I guess you knew it but I never realized

That we were through

And now I'm down here all alone

With every feeling that I own

You can't take that away

And with every breath we take

And the illusions we create

Will come to you someday

And I was touched

By the hand of God

Never knew it

But of course I was

I never hoped to do the things in this world

I wanted to

Because everything I own

It belongs to you

I never looked at you in a sexual way

In my life before

And I've never woken up like this

So desperately before

And I was touched

By the hand of God

Never knew it

But of course I was
