(know, know what i mean)

Fast car, fast car
I wanna meet your fast car
take me on a comet ride, shoot me past the fast car
i wish i owned that last car you could be the end to everything my hearts asking for.

take me away
( so, so, far away)
i dont wanna feel no sorrow
take me away
(so, so, far away)
i might not see tomorrow.

(hey, Hey)

(Chorus)
You tell me you can cure my addiction (addiction)
and you tear my feet off the ground
everytime i would forget my affliction (affliction)
but i dont want to come down

it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
is worth a million tears and frowns
it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
is worth a million years on the ground.

take me up in your rocketship tak me so so far away. (away)
let me forget all the good shit take me so, so far away (away)

i need a face thats not mine that fits me just get me to forget misery yes indeed we just be
in misery yes indeed
we just be up high

when im with you x2

(chorus)

You tell me you can cure my addiction (addiction)
and you tear my feet off the ground
everytime i would forget my affliction (affliction)
but i dont want to come down

it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
is worth a million tears and frowns
it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
is worth a million years on the ground.

(missy elliot)

you know you love me right?
lets sing this lullaby
yeah you could be my fast car maybe be my jaguar
baby what you isn't are
make me see the moon and stars
i wanna touch the moon
get some of this poom, poom

(chorus)

You tell me you can cure my addiction (addiction)
and you tear my feet off the ground
everytime i would forget my affliction (affliction)
but i dont want to come down

it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
is worth a million tears and frowns
it's just the high that your givin' me (givin' me)
