I've braved brains and goddless nights
Ye of little faith, don't know my plight
Slaying dragins and winged beasts above
In endless poisoned pursuit of your love
CHORUS
These are the ways of my world weary heart
Pounding harder and beating a path
To your candlelit chamber, I'm nigh yet so far
These are the ways of my world weary heart
I've seen you glitter from your gilded window
Sad blue eyes searching below
And if i scaled your walls for one sweet kiss
Would my anem be there upon your trembling lips
