Someone was crying
Someone in the dark
Me!

Her stiletto...
I bought it for her for protection!
Lily, my treasure
Lily, my Judas

Simple to do
Leaving the world
Simple as this
Simple as this

Easier done
Than to concieve
Don't have to think
Nothing to grieve
Light dries your heart
Women, take part
Death doesn't have to
It cuts to the heart

And answers with truth
To live, you must lie
Honor demands
The hero must die

Simple as this
Simple as this
Simple as... (gasp, short intake of breath)
