You got a hold on me
I didn't think such thoughts come so easily
Just by being someone with nothing on their mind
Yeah its something that your clearly behind
I love your attitude and the way you don't bring me down
I have faults, but I don't wear them like a crown

You decide when the times right for you
Sometimes before we want it we still got things to do
So the past is clear and so is your heart
Just enough space for the one
You got to be ready to be burned when you reach out for the sun
I am not down on my luck, just down on chances that never came around

Someday we're going to go far
Just need a moment to take
Someday we're going to go far
Just need a moment to awake
We're near
We're close
We're there

Just how did we come to this
If I only granted this one wish
Then I would take it every time
Blow me away and tell me you want to be mine
You shake me because you wont fade away
You and me, going to be forever, just pick a date

I don't suppose you would care to be Surrounding me with something so pure
Because I never felt this lightning before
Had I lost a moment to time
And you was shut out of my mind
It might as well have been a life time

Someday we're going to go far
Just need a moment to take

Just need a moment to awake
We're near
We're close
We're there
