Well Im lost
Without a trace again, my friend
This sluggish stride is tripping me
My guide has gone away

And Im free
Im finally free to start a new
Some definitions overdue
But darling, not today

Some solitude to satisfy
Some focus for my haze
I know you mean to the best for me
But the best for me, is not to stay

Cause Im closed
Yes Im closed
Yeah, Im closed
Yes, Im closed for renovations

Well Im drunk
Without a drink to pardon me
Im tumbling like a toddler on a trampoline
Im twisting through the springs

And I wake, each day, with selfish pity strangling
And wasting me as selfish pity should
One more week of this shit
And Ill be closed for good

Some solitude to satisfy
Some focus for my haze
I know you mean to the best for me
But the best for me, is not to stay

And Im closed
Yes Im closed
Yeah, Im closed
Yes, Im closed for renovations

And she walks

She walks home the long way

And you take me in
And dry me from the rain

And you feed me
With all your fine affection

And you love me
Through all my deep fatigue and you promise me, yes you promise me oh, everything you think I need...

Yes I'm...
Yes Im closed
Yeah, Im closed
Yes, Im closed for renovations

Well Im lost
Without a trace again, my friend
My sluggish stride is tripping me
My guide has gone away

And Im free
But darling, not today...
