You swore that you'd love me
Never to leave
You left me lying on a cold floor
With my heart upon my sleeve
I'm tired and I'm lonely
But I still believe
There's a woman out there for me
And she knows just what I need
I was surrounded by your negative vibes
You dragged me down and now I've just
Realised
That you're not the one for me
Say what you wanna say
I can't hear the lies your telling
Play how you wanna play
Don't care less, don't think about you
Anymore, anymore
And it drives you crazy

I've found out the secret
Of positive life
Ditched the deadwood floating 'round me
And embraced the coming lights
We're heading for big things
Dizzying heights
Glad I left your love behind me
And embraced the coming lights
I was surrounded by your negative vibes
You dragged me down and now I've just
Realised
That you're not the one for me
Say what you wanna say
I can't hear the lies your telling
Play how you wanna play
Don't care less, don't think about you
Anymore, anymore
And it drives you crazy
Crazy
