[Hook]

I shoulda known better than to be out here fuckin' with

Knowin' the shit you do

I shoulda known better than to be out here fuckin' with

All that shit you took a nigga through

I told myself that everything would work out fine

(I fucked 'round and hit it) fucked around and slipped and hit that pussy one mo' time

(I fucked 'round and hit it) and got caught up in something that's worse than drugs

I'm a motherfuckin' fool for love.

and I'm just a (just a) just a (just a) a motherfuckin' fool for love.

[Verse One]

man, I was sure I had Ms. Perfect I was settling down through fuckin' round most the time I stayed at her house spent all my time, with her when we stayed in the town thought this shit right here was really bout to work out quickly found out, that wasn't her intentions shorty phone used to ring e're five seconds ain't pay attention she would always take her calls in the kitchen go to the sink, runnin' water like she washin' dishes ain't tryin' a listen I know how them shorties is always in somebody business gossipin', shootin' bullshit with her girlfriend one day feelin like a joker told her I wasn't comin over Jive got me on the last flight out to Arizona, what I told her went over unexpected rung the bell (ding dong!) Domino's (just a second!) opened the door with the robe on she only put on, when she naked as the day she was born
I'm just standin' there with crossed arms then her baby car came out lookin' at me like (Nigga wha's wrong?!)

Wha's wrong?!?

[Hook]

I shoulda known better than to be out here fuckin' with
