Could you kill the one who's there to save your life
Could you bleed the heart that you once loved dry
And how many times will you call my name tonight
Begging for an answer impossible to find
This will be your last breath... tonight (Tonight)
This will be your last breath... tonight (Tonight)
My heart will burn, my heart will burn
This will be the time that evil hearts collide
This will be the love that brings us back to life
This will be your last breath... tonight (tonight) (I want
our lives, I want
Our lives)
This will be your last breath... tonight (tonight) (I want
our lives, I want
Our lives)
My heart will burn, my heart will burn
The sky is dark, our eyes look like fire
The time has come, the time has come
Our last touch, our hearts' blood
This will be your last breath... tonight (tonight) (I want
our lives, I want
Our lives)
This will be your last breath... tonight (tonight) (I want
our lives, I want
Our lives)
My heart will burn... tonight (tonight)
My heart will burn... tonight
