Ever since you woke me up in the night stirring up my soul like a dream
I can't fight
I've been walking 'round like a ghost in my house
Covered in my sheets trying to figure it out

Starring at the spiders up on the wall
Wondering if they've got these feelings at all
Wishing to escape this just for a night
You don't know what you do to me

One day I had you kissing me so openly
Thought that my life was done
The next day you change like a season of rain
My heart's now a soaking drum

The moon's dimmed to yellow
The snow lies so stagnant
The wind has quit blowing and I don't know where you are

The fire keeps on burning everyday after you leave
The fire keeps on hurting and I can't get no relief
The fire keeps on burning everyday after you leave

Ever since you woke me up here inside
Took my dusty room and you turned on the light
I've been walking 'round like a ghost in my house
Covered in my sheets trying to figure it out

Starring at the spiders up on the wall
Wondering if they've got these feelings at all
Wishing to escape this just for a night
You don't know what you've done to me

Monday I had you holding me so tightly
Hoping I would never leave
Somehow you're gone
You moved on
You're so wrong
You've no reason for anything

The stars falling down now
Chaos in my head now
My head in the haze
Baby I don't know where you are

The fire keeps on burning everyday after you leave
The fire keeps on hurting and I can't get no relief
The fire keeps on burning everyday after you leave
