Can't cool off your own fire
No cold tears going to put you out
Out
Out

You're awake
In love
You're wired
Kiss her goodnight
Now you walk by yourself

You're so confused because he told you, "Be careful
You know she's a mess"

And she is a bad situation
Oh
That girl is always depressed

It's something you feel
They can't see it
She is a warmth that ignites what you got inside
What you just can't hide

They way you love her
Nobody understands
The way you feel her
Oh
It's above their heads
The way you bleed her
Oh
Nobody understands her
Boy
Nobody understands

You're awake and you're on fire
Burning up with how you feel
Yeah

Well she's a freak and she's a liar
But you're in love with girl she's concealed

Oh
You're so confused because they told you her father was bad
He was messed

She is a bad situation
Oh
That girl is always depressed

So where do you go when there's no one
When no one believes in your love

Though it all shines out when you kiss her mouth

The way you love you her
Nobody understands
The way you feel her
Oh
The way you bleed her
Oh
Nobody understands her
Boy
Nobody understands

The way you love you her
Nobody understands
The way you feel her
Oh
The way you bleed her
Oh
Nobody understands her
Boy
Nobody understands

They way you love her
Nobody understands
The way you feel her
Oh
The way you bleed her
Oh
Nobody understands her
Boy
Nobody understands
Oh
Nobody understands her
Boy
Nobody understands
