We live in a world today
To burn our sun away
Free all the ghosts
Enslaving our rainbow

How can we lay, a part of a scientific frame
Found a gathering the sea of games
Yearning to see, what you believe
They want to know words to combine

Clean our minds, detune our waves
Write us a chip inside

Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me

Beware of the morning side
The key to a system on the line
We are divine, para-poetic symbol

Password defined
We are the gods of the stages we've loaded

They take you away, all of your dreams
Spread our will, raise our seals
Paint us a new crack in the sky
Blind us to analyze your mind

Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me

Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
Inside of your head

The para-poetic symbol
Bridge to the other side
Where we are the gods of pages we raise

Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me

Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
Inside of your head
Inside of your mind, inside of me
