"Being Myself"

This is the longest
Time that I've spent
Without seein your face
Without kissin your lips

An here's where the pain comes
An here's where the tears fall
We're sittin in my room
We're thinkin alone

I'm bein myself
With you, and you know that it's hard
I told you before
I promise that I'd speak my mind
I know I can't blame
The people that don't understand
It hurts me so much
To watch you slip through my hands

Life that has past by
Life that I lost
A face of an angel
I missed you enough

So don't be a stranger
Call me tonight
Voice of an angel
Missin inside

I'm bein myself
With you, and you know that it's hard
I told you before
I promise that I'd speak my mind
I know I can't blame
The people that don't understand
It hurts me so much
To watch you slip through my hands
