Never thought that you'd be mine, I just stayed there to be kind.

Now you see that you're leaving me, well I don't really care;

I have other things on my mind.

Then when you tell me to just get out, well this isn't just your house.

Well I thought I sort of told you, I guess you didn't listen baby.

Now that I'm looking for your time, just to see if I'm on your mind.

I think we're really over now, I saw your girlfriend; You and her seem to be fine.

Chorus:

Now that we are through - I realise I want you!

I try to get you back - but you don't need me!

Baby, what you thinking now, baby? Ooh, baby,

Have a look, have a look, look at me!

Baby, what you thinking now, baby? Ooh, baby,

I took a change now - Baby! Baby! Baby! Baby!

I know, I know that I've done something wrong, I never left coz I wasn't strong.

Now that we're over, I don't think that I could even go on.

Well I've changed my naughty ways, well I'm telling you I've changed.

Just come back and stop the crap, work it out with me...

Chorus

I changed my mind, I really changed everything that I had.

I'm even walking towards you now, and you won't look at me.

And I'm feeling really used up, yeah I'm getting really mad about it.

I changed everything for you, and only you.

You won't even look at me, look at me.

Oh yeah, look at me, yeah.

Well it's a fact - I need you, I want you back.
Just change your mind and we'll be fine, work it out with me.

Chorus

Baby, what you thinking now, baby?
What you think now, baby!?
Have a look, have a look - look at me.
