I should have seen the signs you showed me
So many times, in so many ways
On a never ending journey though the cold light of day
Cold light of day

I spent nearly all my time
Thinking I know you but I still got my doubts
Little things to try to work you out
Playing on my mind

Will you leave her now
Like you left me then
Just forgot and leave me
With just enough to start again

Start a brand new life
Maybe have some kids
Never facing facts
And never looking back

How y' livin'
Are y' living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her right

How y' livin'
Are y' living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her
Treating her right

I don't see you anymore
Heard you're married but you never know
You've never married enough to not want to let them go
You never fight enough to not want to fight no more

Just keep moving on, find another girl
Go out and party and make sure
That she rocks your world

How y' livin'

Are you living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her right

How y' livin'
Are you living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her
Treating her right

How y' livin' ,baby
Have you done what's right
How y' livin', baby
Are you treating her right

How y' livin', baby
Have you done what's right
How y' livin', baby
Are you treating her
Treating her right

Haven't seen you for a while, can I come over, baby
Damm you're looking good, what's happened to you lately
I've been cruising round, checking out the scene
Fancy seeing you, are you still feeling angry

Time to move on, make a little wish
I know I treated you bad but I've grown up since
I want to make a change , get it right with you
I'm begging on my knee, have I moved a little too soon?

Have you got a man, does he treat you good
Do you feel the same now, are you still turned on?
A blast from the past, take a load off
You and me got a past that don't stop and won't stop

Pack your bags up, take a ride with me
In my black jeep, we're going to get busy
I'm living right, without you is wrong
The sun don't shine if you're walking alone

How y' livin'
Are you living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her right

How y' livin'
Are you living your life
How y' livin'

Are you treating her
Treating her right

How y' livin', baby
Have you done what's right
How y' livin', baby
Are you treating her right

How y' livin', baby
Have you done what's right
How y' livin', baby
Are you treating her right

How y' livin'
Are you living your life
How y' livin'
Are you treating her
Treating her right

How y' livin'
How y' livin', yeah
How y' livin'
Are you treating her
Treating her right
