mother mary, please answer my prayers i want to run free and i need you to be there im gonna take some chances, i never took before im gonna change my life, and im gonna risk it all i look to the sky and suddenly i know, ive made up my mind, im never letting go its the power i want, its the power i need to make me run to make me see for real its the power i want, to make me do that feel

unlike a miracle or a wish apon a star, the power to be me is all i need to start, do you think all i need to regret and to leave the rest behind

its the power i want, its the power i need
its the power i want, to make me do that feel

its the power i want, its the power i need
its the power i want, to make me do that feel

your the one to only help me, your the one so help me help me, you think oh me to me to me Oh Mother mary, please please please please please just time and watch me shine and watch us fine and help me find away.

Mother mary, mother mary

its the power i want, its the power i need
its the power i want, to make me do that feel

its the power i want, its the power i need oh give me the power
its the power i want, its the power i need give me the power
give me, give me
to make me be for real so let me do that feel power, to make me run to make me see for feel
give me , give me
