Facing the emptiness inside, feeling all alone Lost from the one I'm looking for
I have believed in something larger than I've known
Someone and something just for me

And on and on and on
Through ages past and gone
There is just one spark that lights the flame

(CHORUS)

You were the reason all along
All of my days have led me here
Same in your arms love finally found me
Just as it was meant to be

Oh, to be lying here beside you is such a simple gift
And on and on and on
Through ages past and gone
There is just one spark that lights the flame

(CHORUS)

You were the reason all along
All of my days have led me here
Same in your arms love finally found me
Just as it was meant to be
