"Only Aeons Away"

Visit "Only Aeons Away" on MotoLyrics.com

You kept the weather locked in a box
In the sea under big, big rocks
You're a bloodstain on my favourite shirt
The Captain's calling Red Alert

You're always close, only aeons away
When you fade in, I fade away
Chakra drowned by tidal waves
I will keep the sea at bay

Read on the lines: there's nothing in between It's exactly as it seems
Bittersweet cravings laced with doubt
I'm within but left without

You're always close, only aeons away
When you fade in, I fade away
Chakra drowned by tidal waves
I will keep the sea at bay
