I know. I am
Touched in the head
So go ahead: take his love instead

I had my last smoke
Imagined it was you
Every mote of colour's shifting
Dopplered into blue

All lights are fading
As the curtain unfolds

Revolve, dissolve
Moving off, away
Evolve, resolve
Will night turn into day?

Love's partner's Pain
Hand in hand in hand
Like lovers should
Will I ever understand?

Everything I build
Pouring into sand
I'll run, run, slip away
To far and distant lands

Words left unsaid
Deeds left undone
We live in separate worlds
Under a single sun
