"Time Is Not Tomorrow"

I see you smiling on the ledge all aglow
My heart beats fast but the world moves slow

Baked and buzzed, full of lust on your front porch
I want to kiss you but I'm not sure how
I try to think that time is not tomorrow
I know it's all right now

These seeds are bound to grow
My hopes are high but my odds are low
When I feel the cold winds blow
I will turn to you

Baked and buzzed, full of lust on your front porch
I want to kiss you but I'm not sure how
I try to think that time is not tomorrow
I know it's all right now
