one day you shiver
one day you burn
one day you're helpless next day you learn
one day you practice
one day you're playing one day you're lying next day you're praying, hear what I'm saying,

some days you shadow,
some days you shine,
some days you're gutter,
other days you try,
some days you're theirs,
some days you're mine
some days you shadow
some days you shine

one day you're incense
one day perfume
one day you're buried
next day exhumed
one day you're armored
one day you're naked
one day you feel it
next day you fake it
life's what you make it

some days you shadow
some days you shine
some days you see it
other days you're blind
some days you're nectar some days you're rind
some days you shadow
some days you shine

some days you prosper
some days you pine
some days you're famished

some days you dine
some days you're pearls
some days you're swine
some days you're theirs
some days you're mine
you're mine for all time

some days you shadow
some days you shine
some days you plummet
other days you climb
some days you stammer
some days you rhyme
shine like you're mine
mine for all time
