My very soul
My only friend
I've lost control and now I fear there is no end

My beautifull
My sweet disease
I feel my dreams are slipping out from under me

Just let me touch you
Just let me see
I will not hurt you
all i want is to believe

My secret wish
My solemn vow
Please do not stop believing
I cant lose you now

I'm slowly dying I'm caving in no time for crying
cause my breath is wearing thin

Just let me touch you
Just let me see
I will not hurt you
all i want is to believe

to kiss you sweet to hold you near To hear you whisper my name softly in my ear

what will it take what should I say I cannot bear to feel you pushing me away
