Romeo's Dead
by: Sarina Paris

La..la...la..la.....
La..la...la..la.....

Come out and play
You hide I'll find you
Cause anyway my love will track you
Down like in the play
Two lovers wrapped around and around
History went upside down

Love will save the day
No matter what you do
It's gonna find you
And destiny will
Bring you back to me
This time around
It won't be a tragedy
We are free

Romeo's dead
He wasn't using his head
That little voice in his heart
Went down in history
Now, Romeo's dead
Guess he was looking ahead
He must have known from the start
He read the book of love, of love..

So many ways
To live a moment
Come fill my days
My one and only
Romeo's dead
That kind of thing doesn't ever repeat
We can love eternally

Listen to your heart
It knows you better than

You know your own self
Just like the boy
Who kept on asking "why?"
Oh, what's the greater meaning
Of a rose and a meaning of a name

Romeo's dead
He wasn't using his head
That little voice in his heart
Went down in history
Now, Romeo's dead
Guess he was looking ahead
He must have known from the start
He read the book of love, of love..

Romeo's dead
He wasn't using his head
That little voice in his heart
Went down in history
Now, Romeo's dead
Guess he was looking ahead
He must have known from the start
He read the book of love, of love..

La..la...la..la.....
La..la...la..la..la
