Just do something to tell you who I am, you know?

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out

I've been taking into crates ever since I was living in space

Before the rat race, before monkeys had human traits

Mastered numerology and big bang theology

Preformed lobotomies with telekinetic psychology

Invented the mic so I could start blessing it

And chin checkin' kids to make my point like an impressionist

Many men have tried to shake us

But I twist mic cords to double helixes and show them what I'm made of

I buckle knees like leg braces

Cast the spell of instrumental-ness and all of the emcees that hate us

So try on, leave you without a shoulder to cry on

From now to infinity let icons be bygones

I fire bomb, ghostly notes haunt this

I've tried threats but moved on to a promise

I stomp shit with or without an accomplish

(Mixed media!)

The stamp of approval is on this

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out

It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock

Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out

Akira, put a kink in the backbones of clones with microphones

Never satisfy my rhyme jones

Spraying bright day over what you might say

Blood type craillon

Technicolor type A

On highways with road rage I'm patient to win

The cage and the tin to bounce all around

In surround sound devouring the scene

Subliminal gangrene paintings

Overall the same things sing songs karaoke copy madness

Break bones verbally with sticks and stone tactics

Fourth dimension, combat convention

Write rhymes at ease while the tracks stand at attention (Attention)

Meant to put you away with the pencil
Pistol, official, 16 line rhyme missile
While you risk it all, I pick out of your flaws
Spin, blah blah blah blah
You can say you saw
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
It's high voltage, you can't shake the shock
Because nobody wants it to stop, check it out
