Part of me won't go away
Everyday reminded how much I hate it
Weighted against the consequences
Can't live without it so it's senseless
Wanna cut it out of my soul
And just live with a gaping hole
Take control of my life
And wash out all the burnt taste
I made the problems in the first place
Hang my head low cause it's part of me
You hardly see right next to the heart of me
Hurting me, the routine scar
New cuts cover where the old ones are
And I'm sick of this
I can't stand the sandpaper thoughts that grate on my sanity
I rather not even be then the man that's staring in the mirror through me
Cut myself free willingly
Stop just what's killing me
Cut myself free willingly
Stop just what's killing me

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

I feel it everyday

I feel I made my way

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside

Swallowing me

(how can it be frightening if you've never felt it)

Once it's been dealt with you feel like you've been touched by something angelic

And then melted down into a pool of peace

Cease to be the animal you used to be

Remove the broken parts you know were wrong

And feel the karma when the problem's all gone

And then you start to see another piece of yourself that you can't let be

And that reason will last fight to free yourself

Take it to the depths of the bottom of the well

And now you know you can choose to lose the part in your heart

Where your insides bruise

You can live if you're willing to Put a stop to just what's killing you

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

Cut myself free willingly

Stop just what's killing me

I feel it everyday

I feel I made my way

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside

Swallowing me

Alive in me, inside of me, a part of me screams away silently

This part of me won't go away, part of me won't go

Everywhere I look around I see how everyone ought to

Every time I see myself I see there's always something wrong with me

I feel it everyday

I feel I made my way

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside

Swallowing me

I feel it everyday

I feel I made my way

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside

Swallowing me

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside, swallowing me

I feel it swell up inside, swell up inside, swallowing me
