Spoken word performance by Roy Harper from the "hidden" track on "The Edges Of Twilight").

As you draw near

I hear the mutter of the worried earth

The joyous girl, the crystal clear

Deliver us of our poor hearts from naked fear

As you draw near

As you draw near

I feel the goddess, her celestial birth The fullness of a love so real

The twilight of the god in me glows in my tear

As we draw near
