With nothing to do you'd waste away
Obscured in exile
They've witnessed the times
You've gone astray
Whose fault? Now you're thinking...
Ah there's nothing to prove
A message from the crowd to the shore..
And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down
So strange are the ways
They all have changed
Still life it stays the same
A break from the past
Could make it last
Oh maybe just a little longer
Now there's nothing to prove
A message from the crowd to the shore..
And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down
Your soul shakes free
As its conscience hits the ground

You surrender
Love under will
Rest assured baby, you're adored
And it feels now
Just like heaven's coming down
Your soul shakes free
As its conscience hits the ground
These times, this fate
Takes a path you didn't choose
Stay strong, keep faith
There's a change that's coming through
Hold on, my love
Hold on, my love
Hold on, my love
Feels like heaven's coming down
