turn the lamp down low

baby shelter me

bright enough to see

please don't go

do you feel a flame that's burning as the candle dies

do you see the spirits stirring as you close your eyes do you sense the slow advancement as the twilight thins do you see the serpent dancing as it sheds its skin

baby please don't go

does the sun renounce its kingdom as the shadows fall does a fool rejoice in wisdom when the raven calls do you embrace the dancing clayman as he tears your flesh do you hear the souls screaming in the serpents mesh

do you need the consolation of a dead man's hand as the tears of desolation flood a dead man's land do you seek your souls redemption under fervent skies don't you see your own reflection in the serpent's eye
