VERSE 1:

I was the one whose heart had been broken I was the one who suffered the pain Words aren't important if they are not spoken So many tears like outside when it rains Couldn't see clear how life can't go on Longing for someone 'was longing for you I recognize all the things I've been through And the loss that I have!

Chorus:

Good-bye it hurts Our life will change It's sad 'cause nothing will be the same My love it's over the curtain comes down It's hard 'cause emptiness will remain

VERSE 2:

I was the one who hurt your emotions I was the one who brought you the pain Hiding my feelings was not the solution They can't be forced or even explained Couldn't see clear I repressed what I felt Thought about how am I gonna tell you I recognize that there's no one to blame No one to blame!

Bridge:

How would life seem like if you were still here? Would it be easier? Would you replace my fears? Would you catch all the tears in my eyes?

Chorus
