I walked in today with a smile on my face
To only have it snatched away
The queues already out the door
I hold my breath for what's in the store

No no no
God I can't believe it
No no no
God I just can't take it

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today

You see these eyes yeah they look inviting
It's just a cover for the mess I'm hiding
Only an hour left to go
I count my tips and begin to think

No no no
God I can't believe it
No no no
God I just can't take it

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today

Another day another dream
Another hopeless song to sing
Another day another dream

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today

I wish I was a millionaire
So I can get outta here , yeah
We can go anywhere
I need to get away
I should have called in sick today
