"Still My Heart"

Losing sleep
in a waking dream

A recurring face I see comes to pass my way

Still, my heart,
will you please be still, my heart
In this world of change
you keep turning me round again

[interlude]

In my mind
could it be that I'm just a fool for love
Is blind to danger

Is this faith, then why should I Hesitate when love would dance with a stranger?

[interlude]

Shout it loud from the rooftop high Let it burn inside, and try only to fade and die

If I knew all there was to learn, Every twist and turn,
why do I still try
