Scion i beget you now my son
to break my heart
you turn your back on me i'll lay an egg in our dream and incubate where we all can see irrigated with the blood of the man behold a killing machine these children will tremble as you seize the land with your temple leave these sinners frozen in fear their new commander is here

to break my heart
you turn your back on me
i must turn my back you on now
this is how it has to be born in a predatory jaw these gluttons shall be consumed uphold peremtory law take now a child from the womb countdown the time to their doom deploy your order soon lead these sinners to their tomb

to break my heart
you turn your back on me

listen to the paradox
this is how it has to be
i'm the holy paradigm damn you if you ever believe damn you if you ever breathe damn you under my decree damn forbidden fruit you eat damn the womb from which you come i must turn my back on you there was nothing i could do scion the unholy one you must face your martyrdom

to break my heart
you turn your back on me

to break my heart
its the only way to breathe and i must turn my back on you
