My baby went away today and left me lonely and blue My-y baby went away today and I feel so lonely and blue

'Cause she left me to pack, she left me holdin' a sack
Baby-baby-baby, come on back

Tryin' to rock away my misery, roll away my blues
Even bought myself a pair of them blue suede shoes
Put my cat clothes on, then I was gone-gone-gone
Down to Heartbreak Hotel, now that's where I belong
And when she said goodbye, I thought that I was gonna
die

Baby-baby-baby, come on back

Tryin' to rock away my misery, roll away my blues
Even bought myself a pair of them blue suede shoes
Put my cat clothes on, then I was gone-gone-gone
Down to Heartbreak Hotel, now that's where I belong
And when she said goodbye, I thought that I was gonna
die

Baby-baby-baby, come on back

Well now, baby-baby-baby, come on back to me
