I was lost in my assurance of our love
And I was blind in all the writing up above
I could not hear when you said you had to go away
For here I stand alone and I'm begging you today

Please Let go of my heart
I never thought I could feel such pain
I could make a new start
If you could please let go of my heart

A love like ours is a love you surely can't erase Cause everywhere I turn you know I will see your smilin' face
I always believed our love would always see it through Now I've got half a heart when I know there once was two

Please Let go of my heart
I never thought I could feel such pain
I could make a new start
If you could please let go of my heart

(Instrumental Break)

Let go of my heart
I never thought I could feel such pain
I could make a new start
If you could please let go of my heart

Well time will tell if our love is meant to find a way
If you were here I'd show you our love was meant to stay
Now that you're gone it's so very hard for me to believe Cause even though you go you know that you take a piece of me

Please Let go of my heart
I never thought I could feel such pain
I could make a new start
If you could please let go of my heart

Please Let go of my heart
I never thought I could feel such pain
I could make a new start
If you could please let go of my heart
