(performed by rozalla)

I see papa working nightshift
Worried by his years
Mama's got her problems but she cares
I watch my family going crazy
Telling me I'm lazy, things are going
To work out in the end

'cause you've got to have faith
In the power of love
'cause you've got to have faith
In the power of love

Brother's always shouting
Sister starts to cry

Another anxious moment passes by
I know that I can take it
Someday I will make it
Everything will work out in the end

'cause you've got to have faith
In the power of love
'cause you've got to have faith
In the power of love

Ad lib

Someday I will make it
Just you wait and see
I know that I can take it
That's how things will be
I know what I'm feeling I know I've got faith
I've just got to have it baby I've got the faith
