I know somethings shady when Im feeling it

You play the game like cards when your dealing it

I see through the eyes of a marked man

But in the streets you gotta have a game plan
Im paranoid I se them coming after me
24/7 on me constantly

I see the red beam, I walk the tight rope
But I know Im the target in the scope
YEA!

I try to weed out the real from the fake ones
Two faced ones wont you keep it real son

I can see it from a mile away
Cause Im holding it down with my feet on the gound
And they...

They're tryin to break me, they're tryin to rape me

They're tryin to bring me down

They're tryin to break me, they're tryin to rape me

They're tryin to bring me down

Chorus:

I know there's something going on

And it seems so cold

I know there's something going on

And it wont be long
I know there's somthing going on
How could you be so cold

I know theres something going wrong
Yea!

Evil lurks when you around

And then you know how it's goin down
I look deep and figure how to break free
In my pain escape from reality
I see you scoping on my life and now he tells me

You look suspicious and you plan is tryin to gank me

The mainsuspect but your the reject
You'll be the one with the gun, no respect for me
I roll deep like a bond, I got a blue print

Creep in your area lowright through the residence

Like a sniper, control the damager

Flippin the script cause Im two steps ahead of ya
They're tryin to break me, they're tryin to rape me
They're tryin to bring me down

I know there's something going on

And it seems so cold

I know there's something going on

And it wont be long
I know there's somthing going on
How could you be so cold

I know theres something going wrong

Yea!

I know theres something on
I know theres something on
Cant get this out of my head
I know there's something going on

And it seems so cold
I know there's something going on

And it wont be long
I know there's somthing going on

How could you be so cold
I know theres something going wrong

Yea!
