Love Is Just A War

5 a.m. empty town
no ones here to help me out now where am I
I call your name
I'm Wondering if u feel the same

It's so cold

Love is just a war without you
I'm going under
Never thought this world could be so lonely
Where are you
Love is just a war without you
Torn to pieces
Nothings ever right when you're not near
Where are you now

Been to long
I lost my way
I'm looking for a place where I feel whole again 30 weeks
empty day
Wondering if u feel the same

It's so cold

Love is just a war without you
I'm going under
Never thought this world could be so lonely
Where are you
Love is just a war without you
Torn to pieces
Nothings ever right when you're not near
Where are you now

Where are you now

Storm is breaking (hear my calling)

I have fallen [5 a.m]
Helpless in the rain
And I can't stand another day

Love is just a war without you
I'm going under
Never thought this world could be so lonely
Where are you
Love is just a war without you
Torn to pieces
Nothings ever right when you're not near
Where are you now

Love is just a war without you
I'm going under
Never thought this world could be so lonely
Where are you
Love is just a war without you
Torn to pieces
Nothings ever right when you're not near

Where are you now
