Can't stand myself and messed-up thoughts that are crossing my mind
I'm going crazy but i know that to myself i can't lie Outrageous as a storm in autumn I'm fighting the way
It's gonna be so hard but I'll be ok

Tomorrow I'll be gone and far away
This town will never see my face again
As if i were searching for the light in dark cold night
Tomorrow I'll be gone and far away
You will never see my face again
Sugar and honey
Keep those words for someone else

Accelerate my car and feel how the speed is carrying me

Like thousand raindrops on the windscreen i'm wandering right now
I'm breaking rules, denying feelings, foolin'around
You could have stopped me then but you didn't care

Tomorrow I'll be gone and far away
This town will never see my face again
As if i were searching for the light in dark cold night
Tomorrow I'll be gone and far away
You will never see my face again
Sugar and honey
Keep those words for someone else
