It's friday night and I've just been payed so I took myself to some weird place.
Faded in the crowd with smoke and din. Numbing my ears to the closing bell ringing.

I'll disappear the same way as I entered.
Forget everything or at least try.
Elevate for a few moments of.
Don't listen to fools like me.

I can make you laugh or even cry. cast a spell that would last all night.
Then leave you wondering what did occur. I'll watch the phatome yestereves blur.

I'll disappear the same way as I entered.
Forget everything or at least try.
Elevate for a few moments of.
Don't listen to fools like me.

I eventually found my bedraggled friends.
Seemed they had fallen of the worlds end.
I offer pearls of wisdom for another round. A new tap is then to be found.

I'll disappear the same way as I entered.
Forget everything or at least try.
Elevate for a few moments of.
Don't listen to fools like me.
