The sky is turning black, a creature sent from hell
Is lurking in the dark, and the noose is his tool.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
One step into the night, you're one breath from the light.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
Gotta put up a fight, you're one breath from the light.

Fuck, Kill, Bleed, Burn

This man will hunt you down, this man will kill for fun
e brings you to your knees, with a laugh into the night.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
One step into the night, you're one breath from the light.
What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
Gotta put up a fight, you're one breath from the light.

Now that your time has come, and you know that time
is short.
our panic is rising high, no you don't want to die.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
One step into the night, you're one breath from the light.
What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
Gotta put up a fight, you're one breath from the light.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.
One step into the night, you're one breath from the light.
What have you got to lose, when you're in the

hangmans noose.

Gotta put up a fight, you're one breath from the light.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.

One step into the night, you're one breath from the light.

What have you got to lose, when you're in the
hangmans noose.

Gotta put up a fight, you're one breath from the light.
