Have You ever seen the rain Drops Gives to the earth What the sun Stole Have you ever suffered pain Noone worry about you you're alone

I would like to stay with you just lying on the shore and watch the moon until our heart won't suffer anymore

Have you ever stopped the time Seen every little thing as it is If You smile just to be kind that's enough to feel my heart with bliss

I guess I deserve your eyes
I just can't reach your blind heart
