Visit "New Heart" on MotoLyrics.com

When I looked into your eyes
It's like I reached the sky
And never falling down
When I look into your mind
I cannot find my mind
And now I'm falling down

Once again I found myself alone
Once again against everyone

I never found myself alone
When I looked into your eyes

When I look into your life
I cannot find my life
And now I'm feeling down
Once again I found myself alone
Once again against everyone

I wanted to run away from your heart
It's like falling down into your eyes

Once again I found myself alone
Once again against everyone
