Hello it's a beautiful day and I'm searching for the legendary answer
To all the uncomfortable questions that I had when I was 20 years old
And you said I'm alright if there's nothing inside
But I can't keep on trying

Hello this is the beautiful me yeah still looking for the legendary questions
To all the uncomfortable answers that I had when I was just 17
was told I'm alright if there's nothing inside
But I can't keep on trying

On and On we carry on The same old story but we must go on We're barely here and the sun is gone for now
On and On we carry on
The same old story but we must go on We're barely here and the moon is gone for now
You and I are never done

Hello this is wonderful you yeah still asking for an extraordinary event
To face all the never coming miracles you believed in for so many years
You still say I'm alright if there's nothing inside
But I can't keep on trying

On and On we carry on
The same old story but we must go on We're barely here and the sun is gone for now
On and On we carry on
The same old story but we must go on
We're barely here and the moon is gone for now
You and I are never done

So make your wish upon a star
And forget where we are That's what we've always been wanting to do Every moment that we take
Is a minute lost for the realization

Of what we want to make

On and On we carry on

The same old story but we must go on We're barely
here and the sun is gone for now

On and On we carry on

The same old story but we must go on

We're barely here and the moon is gone for now

You and I are never done
