Colors changing by the hours
Landscapes freezing from the ground
Snow is falling all around me

The midnight sun keeps me from sleeping
Im walking on into the frozen
Somehow I am feeling warmer

Midwinter sleeps under a dream of fear
Midwinter dreams we shed a tear of ice

What becomes a frightening nightmare?
When your eyes are always open
Comes the demons in the daylight?

A colder world can't give you shelter
We're all alone, why can't you see?
Somehow winter feels much longer

Midwinter sleeps under a dream of fear
Midwinter dreams we shed a tear of ice
