Back in my mind to the Southern Sea
To find the answers that became a part of me
On the hot white sands that hold back every wave
They remind me of the very love you gave Beneath the tall palm trees blowing gently in the breeze
Close enough to high water, rollin' on in your dreams

Take my hand, we've got to run
Before we lose the setting sun
There's a place I know just above the cove
When the day is done
It's close enough to high water rollin' on in your dreams
Close enough to high water down to the Southern Sea

I need the wind back in my sails
I'm like a fish on dry land and I don't tell no tales
There's only one place I need to be Back to the southern sea

Take my hand, we've got to run
Before we lose the setting sun
There's a place I know just above the cove
When the day is done
It's close enough to high water
Rollin' on in your dreams
Close enough to high water down to the Southern Sea
Close enough to high water rollin' on in your dreams
