Woman it's rainin' deep in my heart
One more time again my tears are fallin' hard
And I keep on tryin'
There's really no escape
From a heart that is dyin'
From one too many breaks

And woman it's rainin'
It won't stop comin' down
I can't find me a shelter
There's nowhere to run for higher ground

Woman it's rainin' deep in my heart
One more time again oh my tears are fallin' hard
And I feel less that zero through the dark of the night
Ton of rain on the rooftops, there's no relief in sight
And mind over matter won't free me this time

Not until you hold me
Not until you've told me
Not until you swear you say you're mine this time

Woman it's rainin' deep in my heart
One more time again
Oh my tears are fallin' hard
