"you want strong but not too loud you want a barbie that is real you want me to pour my heart out then you try to tell me it's not how i should feel you want tact
you want tame
you want another precious jewel you're a fool

well i know what you think and its always the same i won't play that part and i don't wanna play that game you can't change me i know that you want to tell me
do i scare you?

who are you to tell me what i should or want to do? this is who i am i don't care what "womyn" play and i won't change my mind just to please you you want safe
you want sane
you want emotion but control i don't think so well i'm not what you think but it's always the same i don't fit that part and i will not play your game you cant hurt me i know that you'll try to i know that i scare you

boo!

i know what you think and it's all the same i won't play that part and i will not play your game you can't stop me don't try to i like
that i scare you"
