"you show your affection with fists of rejection an innocent woman should not need protection how can you beat her?

you scar and mistreat her your sick love's a crime now all her pain is mine for each tear in vain

i have shed in her name i will find you and teach you the meaning of pain
how you will suffer
you beat her, then fuck her your twisted addiction
now face your conviction

make her bleed
you wanna make her bleed
you wanna make her bleed
why don't you hit on me?
you wanna hit on me?
so this is how you think
a man's supposed to act?
you beat on women
'cause they don't hit back
hit on me

coward!

a man's supposed to act?
'cause we don't hit back

justice..."
