Like another icon in a repetitious era louder makes you change what you thought you already had insert the compact monetary instinct change your mind try to wear my head in your hand follow like a hero like a leader like a liar trendsetters looking for another trend to set i see echos in the future, repeating, repeating fearing longing in utopia

How can it be shocking in a perfect world

midnight escaping, only repeating take another minute now to look into the mirror singing makes you change what you thought you already had contrast the naked momentary eye blink pass the fate, try to see the sin in your head change it like you meant it, like you like you like it, like you love it.

Tiny fingers beating for another lose full sweat.
I see echoes in the future repeating X 4

fearing longing in utopia

fearing longing in uptopia

louder makes you change what you thought you already had

change your mind, try to wear my head in your grabbing hand

how it be shocking in a perfect world midnight escaping, only repeating X2
